

JR Cape now Member of SIGMA SEARCH PARTNERS

JR Cape has built an excellent reputation in its core markets in Asia Pacific and Germany, with an increasing number of multinational company clients using our direct search and HR consulting services. Since inception of JR Cape Group it has been our clear goal to create a most accessible business network close to our clients. Our latest office establishments include Bremen and Seoul with experienced senior consultants representing our company in their markets.

Due to a high grade of matching business principles and complementing service portfolios JR Cape has been given the exciting opportunity to join SIGMA SEARCH PARTNERS network, an international alliance of highly reputed executive search, HR and management consultants.

Sigma Search Partners was established in 1996 in response to demand from client organizations who want to work with independent search and HR consulting firms across international markets. Member firms all share the same values and demanding professional standards. In order to safeguard project execution at highest international service levels the partners regularly exchange crucial information on innovations in their markets and work hand-in-hand on cross-border assignments.

In addition to executive search, Sigma Search Partners provide organizational and leadership consultancy based on the consultants' many years of experience in senior corporate positions.

Benefits for JR Cape clients:

- enhanced service portfolio including international executive search, talent potential analysis, leadership development, executive coaching, organizational development
- experienced international HR and management consultant team
- bigger international talent pool
- truly international cross-border projects spanning the globe
- unchanged local contact and individual JR Cape service

With JR Cape joining Sigma Search Partners the partnership is now internationally represented in Brazil, China, France, Germany, Hong Kong, Italy, Korea, Spain, Singapore, UK and USA.

Global reach – localized service and expertise. The perfect Match.
